PERKINS CENTER FOR THE ARTS
CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC
2009-2010

PERKINS CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Perkins Center for the Arts is dedicated to excellence in the arts and to providing a wide range of creative opportunities for people of all ages and of every level of artistic development. Central to our mission is the belief that artists and the language of the arts are ideal for perceiving and interpreting the complex modern world in which we live. Perkins Center is unique in its ability to provide high quality artistic programs in a grassroots community setting.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Perkins Center Conservatory of Music offers a full program of instruction for students of all levels, ages 6 to adult. Students receive individual instruction in piano, flute, recorder, violin, viola, guitar, percussion, music theory & composition.

Voice lessons are offered for students age 12 to adult. Voice students also learn how to read pitches and rhythms and understand the fundamental of music theory.

Conservatory faculty members are graduates of major music conservatories and universities, and many of them perform professionally. Students of the Conservatory come away with a high quality music education that builds creativity and confidence, essential traits for life-long learning and achievement. Lessons can be arranged by calling Conservatory Director Linda Schenk at 856-235-6488 x 307.

THE CONSERVATORY YEAR

The Conservatory school-year is arranged in four 10-week quarters.

The summer session is flexible in duration. Tuition is pro-rated. Students will be billed individually according to teacher/student schedules.
